

Attention Housing Providers, Bloggers, Twitter Followers and the General Public!

Join us at the Virginia Fair Housing Office as we commemorate the 2015 Fair Housing Month. In an effort to keep the conversation and awareness of the Virginia Fair Housing Law fresh in our minds, The Virginia Fair Housing Office and Housing Opportunities Made Equal are teaming up to host an event we have titled:

TAKING THE “FEAR” OUT OF THE FAIR HOUSING LAW THROUGH AWARENESS AND EDUCATION & the hot topic HOARDING AND THE VIRGINIA FAIR HOUSING LAW

Thursday,
June 25, 2015
1:00 p.m. –
5:00 p.m.

Location:
DPOR - Conference
Center, 2nd Floor
Boardroom #2
9960 Mayland Drive
Richmond, Virginia
23233

We invite you and all bloggers and users of Twitter as we “Take Fair Housing into the 21st Century with Technology”. Join us as Liz Hayes, Director of the Virginia Fair Housing Office, and Helen Hardiman, Director of Fair Housing at Housing Opportunities Made Equal (HOME) address questions and concerns about the Virginia Fair Housing Law. Following this discussion will be a presentation on Hoarding and the Virginia Fair Housing Law by Mally Dryden-Mason. Seating is limited so register early!

To register: please visit Brown Paper Tickets at www.brownpapertickets.com and type in the word DPOR. For more information you may contact Mally Dryden-Mason at (804) 367-4873 or FHRegistraton@dpor.virginia.gov.
