

FREE
FAIR HOUSING
REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS
TRAINING & NETWORKING EVENT

Don't miss this opportunity to network with private-sector, non-profit and government HOUSING PROVIDERS. Come together for this training event to learn about Fair Housing laws as they relate to Reasonable Accommodations . . . better understand challenges and obstacles faced by other housing managers and supportive service providers experience . . . and identify ways we all can work together throughout Northern Virginia.

IGNORANCE OF FAIR HOUSING LAWS IS NOT AN EXCUSE FOR DISCRIMINATION!

WHEN:

Tuesday, November 1, 2016
10:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

WHERE:

Fairfax South Government Center
Main Conference Room | 221
8530 Richmond Highway (Route 1)
Alexandria, VA 22309

TRAINER:

Mahalia "Mally" Dryden-Mason
Virginia Fair Housing Office Training Specialist
Mally is an enthusiastic, realistic, and energetic trainer who makes learning Fair Housing fun!

EVENT FEATURES

- Six-hour training focused on Reasonable Accommodations
- Fair Housing legal updates and examples of real-life Fair Housing cases
- Interactive case reviews
- Q&A Session (questions are welcome throughout the program, not just during Q&A!)
- Networking with Housing Providers from the northern Virginia region

Certificates of Completion

Certificates will be available to participants after completing the seminar.

Who Should Attend?

- PRIVATE SECTOR housing providers, condominium and homeowners' associations, maintenance staff, anyone providing services to residential properties
- NON-PROFIT providers; caseworkers, contract/lease administrators
- PHA & GOVERNMENT housing providers, program administrators and service coordinators

SPACE IS LIMITED! RSVP by October 21, 2016 by e-mailing

Christina.Mahoney@FairfaxCounty.gov

For ADA accommodation or to request materials in an alternative format :
Phone 703-324-2123; TTY 703-324-2900 or e-mail Christina.Mahoney@fairfaxcounty.gov